Jack Smith

I'm Jack Smith. I'm twelve. I live in Bristol. It's a city and a port. It is in England, but I live far from London. Sometimes at weekends my parents and I go to London. In London we shop, walk along the streets and visit museums sometimes. The museums in London are cool!

Frankly speaking, I like travelling. I travelled not only to London, but also visited several cities abroad. I have visited several European cities like Paris and Berlin. Last year my classmates and I went to Paris. There I saw the Eiffel Tower. It impressed me a lot. It was so tall! We also were in Berlin. Most of all I liked the Zoo in Berlin. The animals there are kept in special areas. There are a lot of trees and bushes, so you don't see the cages. It is like the animals are free. Fascinating! The zoo was more interesting than the tower.

When I don't travel, I go to school. Sometimes it's fun, sometimes it's boring. On Monday we have seven classes. I'm not tired because we have Physical Training classes on Monday. The busiest day is Thursday. We have only five classes, but they are Science, Maths, Literature and Geography. These are four subjects, but can you imagine - we have two Maths! I hope I will know Maths well, but now I have problems with it. The only positive thing is that after Thursday comes Friday - the last day of our school week.
